While Greek poet Giorgos Seferis, when in his Nobel Prize acceptance speech in 1963, pointed out that "In our gradually shrinking world, everyone is in need of all the others"
